 Frank E. Langley, Publisher.

Entered at the Postoffice at Barre as Second Class Matter.

THURSDAY, APRIL 19, 1906.

The average daily circulation of the Barre Daily Times for the week ending Saturday was

4,135 copies, the largest paid circulation of any daily paper in this section.

Let it not be overlooked that rich champagne was poured over the bow of that new Lake Champlain steamboat.

That much used instrument in Barre, an injunction, is now being tried out in the water embroglio at Brattle-borough.

President Roosevelt lives up to his reputation as no mince of matters in his message of yesterday on the beef packers.

In the island regions of the Pacific they take the precaution to build their structures low in anticipation of earthquakes. Sky-scrapers will be rare in San Francisco, too, after this experience.

SANITY OF RESPONDENTS IN MUR-DER TRIALS.

Another person, who is charged with murder, is to be taken to the insane asylum at Waterbury, to be observed as to his mental condition. The lesson taught by the Mary Rogers case when the sanity of the prisoner was questioned after she had been convicted and sentenced is bearing fruit in this practice of determining the sanity of the respondent before he is placed on trial.
 So it is well enough to take Ray Muller to the asylum for observation before he is placed on trial next fall. It will be really as much for the interests of the prosecution as for the defense that this fact be established at the outset.

SAN FRANCISCO'S CALAMITY.

The whole world stands appalled at the enormity of the calamity which has befallen one of the chief cities of the United States, and Americans have had brought home to them, directly, a most terrible story. When one reads of earthquake calamities of very great magnitude in a far off and perhaps heathen land, the effect is not large and one is inclined to read the accounts with interest and then dismiss the subject.
 Not so, however, in the present. The people who have felt the blow are American people; the city that has been partially wiped out is an American city; their interests are our interests, albeit they may be separated by the width of a continent. Business ties, family connections and the national unity link the people of the whole United States with the sufferers in San Francisco in this tremendous blow. So the people of this country will have not merely a passing curiosity in the reading of the details, but a direct concern.
 What San Francisco has suffered in these two days, the entire country has suffered, although the poignancy of the affliction is incomparably less keen.

Just what the measure of suffering was will never be fully realized by those who were not there to feel the terrible effects, but one can perhaps imagine the worst and then not be far from a correct realization. The almost imperceptible earthquake tremors that are sometimes felt in the east furnish no comprehensive idea of the terrific convulsions of the earth which cause huge stone and brick buildings to topple and fall in on themselves. Such was the experience of San Francisco yesterday morning. Then add to the terror occasioned by the violent shaking of the earth's crust that more accustomed destroyer, fire, in its most devouring fury and you have a partial idea of that with which the people of the fair western

NO SWISS EMIGRANTS.

Satisfied With What Their Own Country Gives Them, the Swiss Stay at Home.

The perfect honesty with which public affairs are conducted in Switzerland is made plain in Charles Edward Russell's instalment of "Soldiers of the Common Good," in the April number of "Everybody's." He says:
 "Whether we like or dislike the admission, we shall confess, if we know them intimately, that the Swiss are exceedingly well. In Switzerland are no trusts, no criminal conspiracies of capital, no 'Systems,' no Standard Oil Companies, no advancing and swelling public utilities to corrupt the courts and seize the government, no special incentives for favored speculators, no purchased elections, no political bosses, no crooked Congressmen, no greasy Senators elected by the railroad companies, no public officers maintained by thieving corporations, no Aldriches, no Deweseys, no Platts, no Forakers, no persons that in the least resemble this precious crew. In Switzerland is no gang of public plunderers operating under the shield of the government, no theft of the public lands, no exchange of campaign subscriptions for government contracts, no John D. Rockefeller, no H. H.
 Rogers, no Ogden Armour, no Pierpont Morgan—on a great scale or a small is none of those nor likely to be. Finally, in Switzerland is no menace that the country's resources will be absorbed by a few individuals, no treacherous threat of the accumulative power of great fortunes. It is no wonder that the Swiss comes home."

ADVERTISING.

It's a straight, steady shot that brings down the game. Likewise it's steady hammering on the selling points in an ad. that gets returns.
 Tenacity made the bullock famous, but exercised in the right way it will help his bank account.
 Trying to win a business without advertising is like trying to steer a ship without a rudder—pretty liable to get bumped sooner or later.—Exchange.

An Eighteen Month Year.
 The ancient Mexicans had a year of eighteen months of twenty days each.

PURE BLOOD
IS HEALTH

You must have pure, rich, vitalizing blood, or you cannot enjoy perfect health.
 Spring is a season when nearly everybody's blood is somewhat impoverished, as is shown by bad complexion, lack of vitality and a tired, listless condition.
 A good blood purifier is needed at this time and our

Sarsaparilla Compound

is the most effective and pleasant remedy you can take. It will quickly overcome any disordered condition of the blood and make it rich, red and vigorating. You will avoid skin eruptions, boils, abscesses, rheumatism, and other painful and disgreeable results of impure blood. Price, 75c.

He Forsook the Giddy.

Once upon a time there was a certain man who led a Wild and Riotous Life and Painted or Red, and could draw a map of the Primrose Path from memory at any time, and drank with the Boys and Girls the night before, and took Bromo Seltzers with himself the next morning and knew how exceedingly difficult it is to fit a No. 7 hat on a No. 19 head. In short, this certain man was Real Dissipated, so very dissipated that everybody felt that he either was Training for Practical Politics or else was N. G.
 You may judge how Real Dissipated he was when I tell you that at last it came to such a pass that all his acquaintances said: "He is such a Brilliant Man and so Good-hearted! And he might do so much if he would!"
 For such is the world, and if a man is a Worthless Character who neglects his family and blows in his shanks on Rocoze it almost always freely admits that he is a Brilliant Man and so Good-Hearted. Did you never notice, it Agamemnon?

But after a while the certain man considered the matter and took a Tumble to himself, saying: "Go to! Henceforth I will forsake the Giddy, Mount the Water Wagon and Travel with the Truly Good." So he Forsook and Mounted and Travelled as aforesaid. At first he could find no joy in Church festivals, but at last he realized that they are full of True Bliss if one only can Place his Finger on it."

So it finally came to pass that this certain man became as Good as They Make Them, and would Shy Violently if a Worthless Character who neglects his family and blows in his shanks on Rocoze was Wafted in His Direction, and he was recognized as a Great Hand at instructing dear little children in the Way They Should Go, and he was Extremely Successful and Gathered to himself Dollars Galore and became a Prominent Citizen.
 But in so doing his Success got in the way of other people who also were Laying for Success, till, one and all, they remarked "Tell with him! He is merely a Common, Ordinary Chump who is Playing in Great Luck, and, as far as his friends are concerned, they might as well be selected from the Mollusks on the Beach. Moreover, his Heart is but a Petrified Organ which never suggests anything to him."
 And this sort of comment ran clear down the line.
 Moral: If you wish to be described as brilliant and good-hearted, stand in the way of nobody's success, but your own, and the chances are that you will win out in the game—if you are satisfied with that sort of a winning.—San Francisco Call.

Looks Like a Tip Off.

Red hair, regarded in some quarters as an addition, has become a downright handicap. Chief Collins of the Chicago police force, has placed his stamp of disapproval upon it and has suggested to two of his latest additions to the force that they get their crops dyed to some less boisterous hue. Two of the "big men" who faced him, after being sworn in, were founded to be read-headed. James W. Regan was one of them, and the advice given him was intended to apply to both. It was brief and to the point.
 "A burglar or a hold-up man could see you a block," the chief declared, "and with that bunch of hair your chances of making a capture are pretty slim. Better get it dyed black."

The advice was listened to, but so far it has not been followed by either of the offending recruits.—Milwaukee Evening Wisconsin.

Two Eventful Occasions.

The bridal veil of a Japanese young lady is subsequently used as her shroud. Just after the marriage it is carefully put away and reserved until death makes its use again necessary.

Color Blindness and Eyes.

It has been noted by the oculists that blue eyed people are seldom color blind, the percentage of those so afflicted being greatest among persons with hazel and black eyes.

The Best Eyes.

Americans have the best eyes of any nation.

Boosh.

The word "boosh" is simply the Turkish for nothing and came into England about the time of the Crimean war.

COLLEGE AND SCHOOL.

From the beginning of modern times Germany has held first place among the nations of the world in educational work. She has twenty-one universities, the largest of which is at Berlin and has 5,500 pupils.

Mrs. A. A. Anderson of New York has given $100,000 to Columbia university to start a suitable endowment to establish a pure science course, leading to the degree of bachelor of science in Barnard college.

Winchester college holds a unique position among English public schools.
 It is not so large as Eton, nor so smart as Harrow, nor so progressive as Rugby, but it is the oldest and most conservative, and in organization, discipline and general methods it has been the working model for the other great schools.

The art of dentistry was introduced into New York by John Greenwood in 1788. He is said to have made the first artificial teeth ever manufactured in this country.
